

Elections New CECA Board !

Elections for a new CECA board are imminent. This is a great opportunity for everyone, senior and junior members alike, to take a seat on the board.

We need a strong and active board to involve and communicate about ICOM-CECA's activities to as many members as possible.

The current CECA board unfortunately has to replace more than half of its current members, including the top positions: president and treasurer - secretary. But it also offers opportunities for fresh new ideas and perhaps a new direction.

In total, we need 15 board members to fill all the necessary positions.

Would you like to play an active role in the development of our committee? Then grab your chance and stand for election. The schedule is as follows:

- 11 April 2025: opening candidacy period
- 11 April – 25 May 2025: candidacy process
- 25 May - 18 July 2025: candidacies are published on line
- 19 July – 5 September 2025 : voting period
- 13 - 20 September 2025: Publication of the results
- 18 October 2025 : the General Assembly and Official presentation of the new board.

You can find the application form for candadacy here !

Stand for election and set the course of CECA together! Experience working closely with your international colleagues and expand your network.

Note: If there are not enough candidates for the election process , the new board must be officially accepted by the members through a vote at the General Assembly on 18 October 2025.

Going to Dubai? Then you can meet the new board members in person. We are planning a formal moment at our IC Day at Louvre Abu Dhabi where the new board will introduce itself.
